Educating the Global Child

Inheritance of a GLORIFIED MISSION

Be a Montfortian to triumph and
MAKE LIFE FRUITFUL

St. Louis Grignion de Montfort was born on 31st January 1673 in a small town 'MONTFORT' in France. Even from his childhood days, he was virtuous and exhibited an extraordinary love for the poor. He loved and admired the mother of Jesus. He became a priest and worked ceaselessly for God and man. He went about from place to place with the message of God's love. He taught and served the poor people and championed their cause.

He was a great scholar, a powerful speaker and an author of many spiritual works, such as "The Love Of Eternal Wisdom", "The True Devotion To Mary", "The Secret Of Mary" and "The Secret Of the Rosary". His capacity to paint and carve, along with his poetic skills, has made him a spiritual "Leonardo da Vinci".

He never bothered about the consequences of telling the truth and doing what was right before the eyes of God. He was victimized by the world for his honesty and conviction.

He died at an early age of 43 on April 28th 1716. He was acclaimed a Saint by the people and the church authorities. He established many dedicated groups of men and women to carry on his good work, particularly instructing the youth. One such organization is the Montfort Brothers of St. Gabriel. Montfort school, Anakkara and many such educational institutions all over India and abroad are administered by the followers of St. Montfort, under the banner of 'Brothers of St. Gabriel'.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS

History of Montfort School, Anakkara

Montfort School, Anakkara has the distinction of being the first Montfortian School in Kerala. Montfort Brothers have been working in India for over 100 Years. A good number of these Brothers hail from Kerala. Yet they did not deem it necessary to start any educational institution in Kerala because there were already many priests and religious persons engaged in the educational field.

After the division of the Southern Province of the Montfort Brothers in 1993, the Brothers of the Yercaud Province were eagerly looking for a place in the High Range of Kerala to establish a good English Medium School.

Rev. Fr. Mathew Nellary, who was the Director of Malanadu Development Society based at Anakkara in Idukki District had a great desire to see a good school at Anakkara. So he wrote to various religious congregations suggesting them to start a school at that place.

He wrote a letter on 1st October 1993 to Bro. Antony Francisco who was the director of Montfort School, Yercaud. Since a positive reply came from Yercaud, Rev. Fr. Mathew Nellary went to Yercaud to meet the concerned people and to discuss matters about starting of a school. Thus it was decided to look for a suitable place for the school in the Anakkara Parish. Fr. George Kottady, who was the then Parish Priest of Anakkara Forane Church was very happy about the prospect and promised all the help for the commencement of the school.

Principal's Desk

Dear Parents, Students, and Well-Wishers,

It gives me immense joy to greet you all from Montfort School, Anakkara, a community inspired by the vision of St. Louis-Marie de Montfort and guided by the educational mission of the Montfort Brothers of St. Gabriel.

At Montfort, we believe that true education goes far beyond textbooks and examinations. It is a lifelong journey of forming minds, shaping hearts, and nurturing character. Rooted in our motto, "Educating the Global Child," we strive to develop in every student a spirit of curiosity, creativity, and compassion — preparing them to be responsible global citizens who will make a difference in the world.

Our theme for this academic year, "Elevating Minds and Enriching the Future," reflects our firm commitment to inspire our students to think deeply, act wisely, and dream boldly. Through quality education, value formation, and holistic development, we seek to elevate young minds toward higher ideals and to enrich the future of our society through their goodness and leadership.

Every achievement of our school stands as a testament to the dedication of our teachers, the support of our parents, and the enthusiasm of our students. Together, we continue the Montfortian legacy of education founded on faith, excellence, and service.

May God's wisdom and Mary's maternal guidance lead us as we journey forward, elevating minds and enriching the future.

Warm regards,
Rev. Bro. Ignatius Dass. L. (Principal)
Montfort School, Anakkara
